

MGT 403

Preparedness Planning for Rural Communities Access and Functional Needs

Purpose: To ensure the safety of people with access and functional needs, including older adults, particularly those residing in assisted-living and nursing homes during a crisis event by increasing knowledge among community emergency planners in the area of preplanning and preparedness.

Target audience:

Public safety, long term care facilities, emergency managers, hospital emergency preparedness coordinators, municipal officials, and more...

JUNE 18TH, 2019
8AM-4PM

Location

Littleton Regional Healthcare
Conference Room
600 St. Johnsbury Road
Littleton, NH 03561

Registration

Register Here:
<http://bit.ly/NCHCMTG403>
Space is Limited,
Register Today!

Facilitators

Rural Domestic Preparedness Consortium,
a contractor for FEMA
(Federal Emergency Management Agency)

Registration link is provided by NH
Homeland Security and Emergency
Management Training Bureau.
Questions? Contact:
Jim Richardson: (603) 259-3700 x255

Leading innovative collaboration to improve the health status of Northern New Hampshire.

603-259-3700 | NCHCNH.org