Principles and techniques of PFA meet four
basic standards:

- Consistent with research evidence on risk and resilience following trauma
- Applicable and practical in field settings
- Appropriate to developmental level across the lifespan
- Culturally informed

An evidence-informed approach for assisting children, adolescents, adults, and families in the immediate aftermath of a traumatic incident.

A 5-hour course with didactic presentation and group participation for anyone with a healthcare background. Instructors will introduce Psychological First Aid, including how and when it can be used, as well as core actions to practice.
